

How do we as Christians 'Walk the Talk' in the 21st Century?

Prayer and Theological Reflection

with

Larry Hurtado,
Professor of
New Testament,
New College
and

Alison Moody,
Epiphany Group

A Conference for Laity of all Denominations
23–25 May, 2008
Scottish Churches House, Dunblane

How do we as Christians 'Walk the Talk' in the 21st Century?

A Conference for Laity at Scottish Churches House, Dunblane from 23-25 May. Cost: £130

This conference is an opportunity for Christians of all denominations to meet each other in a prayerful and thoughtful setting to explore what faith means today. Led by Alison Moody and Larry Hurtado, it will encourage participants to ask:

- Who is God for us today?
- How does the Jesus of history relate to the Christ of faith?
- Where do we discern the Holy Spirit?

Larry Hurtado is Professor of New Testament at New College, Edinburgh. Fascinated by earliest Christian responses to Christ, he has recently produced a DVD entitled: 'Devotion to Jesus: The Divinity of Christ in Earliest Christianity'. He will offer the conference a scholarly and spiritually challenging presentation uncovering the historical facts of when, where and why people believed in the divinity of Christ.

Alison Moody works in spiritual direction. She is a member of the Epiphany Group which is rooted in the Ignatian tradition and offers help and support to individuals, informal groups, churches and parishes who wish to explore the spiritual aspects of life and faith in their own setting. She will guide the conference participants into prayerful reflection on where they sense God at work in their lives.

I wish to book for the 'Walk the Talk' conference at Scottish Churches House on May 23-25

Name.....

Address.....

.....Post Code.....

Tel. No..... Email.....

Denomination.....

I have the following dietary requirements.....

I am willing to share a room I require a single room (£10 single supplement) and enclose a cheque (made payable to Scottish Episcopal Church)

deposit of £20 full fee of £130 (shared room) £140 (single room)

Please send your completed form and cheque by May 2nd to:

Denise Brunton, TISEC, 21 Grosvenor Crescent, Edinburgh EH12 5EE

Email deniseb@scotland.anglican.org Tel 0131 225 6357