INTRODUCTION

The legal framework of the Scottish Episcopal Church is set out in the Code of Canons. The General Synod of the Church is established in terms of Canon 52 of the Code of Canons. The membership of the General Synod comprises:-

- the Diocesan Bishops
- the Conveners and members of the Standing Committee, and the Conveners of the Faith & Order Board, the Mission Board, the Administration Board, and the Institute Council (where such Conveners or members are not otherwise members of Synod)
- any person elected to represent the Scottish Episcopal Church on the Anglican Consultative Council
- instituted, licensed or commissioned presbyters or deacons elected severally by the Diocesan Synods of which they are members (resolution currently provides for 62 such members of Synod)
- Lay members elected severally by the Diocesan Synods in which they are resident or otherwise qualified for election (resolution currently provides for 62 such members of Synod).

Canon 52 regulates the operation of the General Synod and Section 22 of that Canon authorises the Synod to pass resolutions, inter alia, to provide for the implementation of the Canons, for the regulation of the Synod's own procedure and for the regulation of all matters of property, finance and general administration throughout the Church including provision for the holding of property under trust, the appointment of trustees and the raising and defending of legal proceedings and references to arbitration. The Synod is further permitted to delegate, by resolution, to its Boards and Committees the making of rules within the terms laid down by the resolution.

The provisions contained in this Digest were adopted by resolution passed on 13 June 1997 which replaces all former Digests and repeals all resolutions contained therein. The Digest has been updated as and when amended by subsequent resolutions of the General Synod.

This introduction is not intended to have any legal effect and does not form part of the legal content of this Digest.

1. THE GENERAL SYNOD

1.1 Powers of the General Synod

For the avoidance of doubt, the powers of the General Synod shall include the matters listed below:-

- 1.1.1 Taking cognisance of and having responsibility for the whole of the financial affairs of the Church and controlling the funds of the Church in its corporate capacity, so far as these may be committed to it, and making provision for the collection and custody of those Funds and for their distribution;
- 1.1.2 Appointing officials;
- 1.1.3 Providing itself with accommodation for the transaction of its business;
- 1.1.4 Raising or defending actions, or taking such other steps as it sees fit, with a view to protecting or enforcing the rights or interests, or supposed rights or interests, of the Church or General Synod, and compromising, compounding or referring to arbitration, or otherwise settling all claims, questions or disputes in which it is concerned and suing or being sued in the name of Trustees, or the Secretary General, or such other persons as the General Synod may appoint;
- 1.1.5 Meeting the costs of meetings of the General Synod and the expenses of the work of the General Synod;
- 1.1.6 Meeting the costs of Episcopal Synods and of meetings of the College of Bishops;
- 1.1.7 Meeting the costs of Ecclesiastical Tribunals and expenses of accusations and trials, other than (in all such cases) the expenses of the parties involved;
- 1.1.8 Deciding, in its own absolute discretion, on the best means of promoting its work and objects, and the expenditure to be incurred in connection therewith including by way of example only and without limiting the generality hereof, payments to officials of retiring allowances or other extra payments, and provision for publications in the interest of the General Synod, and also in like manner determining how such expenditure should be charged against the different funds under its charge or cognisance;
- 1.1.9 By itself or otherwise acting as Trustee for funds entrusted to its charge for special purposes and subject to special conditions; and
- 1.1.10 Generally, and without limitation to any of the foregoing, making such regulations and conducting and managing the affairs entrusted to it in such a way as it sees fit and the Canons allow.

1.2 Trustees of the Scottish Episcopal Church

The funds of the General Synod shall be vested in names of six Trustees, and the survivors of the Trustees and their successors in office, to be appointed from time to time by the General Synod, a majority of the surviving Trustees always being a quorum or in the name of the Scottish Episcopal Church Nominees in trust for behoof of the General Synod. The Trustees act solely as nominees or custodians of the property of the General Synod of the Scottish Episcopal Church and consequently do not have general control and management of the administration of the General Synod of the Scottish Episcopal Church. A Trustee shall be entitled to resign office, by writing under his own hand or duly authorised by him addressed to the Secretary General of the General Synod, and the General Synod shall accept the same by recording it in its minutes, which shall be a full and complete discharge to the Trustee so resigning. The General Synod may appoint a new Trustee to succeed a Trustee resigning or dying and shall do so as soon as possible if the number of the remaining Trustees shall be less than five. The General Synod shall have power to remove a Trustee if, in its opinion, and on the report of the Standing Committee, that Trustee ought to be removed. The Trustees shall have power to sell or feu heritable property, and shall also have all the powers possessed now or from time to time by Trustees under statute, and also all the powers which the Court of Session is entitled to confer upon Trustees under the Trusts (Scotland) Act 1921, the Trusts (Scotland) Act 1961 or the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005, as amended. All deeds which have been granted, or that may be granted, by them shall be held as granted under the powers aforesaid. The Trustees shall have, in addition and without prejudice to the powers which gratuitous trustees have by statute or common law of Scotland, power:-

- 1.2.1 To uplift and receive legacies, successions and all estates heritable and moveable, to which the General Synod may be entitled and to grant all necessary deeds and receipts and discharges. The signature of the Secretary General or the Treasurer, or any one of its Trustees, shall be a valid discharge unless otherwise provided in the terms of the bequest.
- 1.2.2 To grant obligations binding the funds of the General Synod so far as the said funds are held for the general purposes of the General Synod.
- 1.2.3 To retain any properties and investments at present belonging to or which may be given or bequeathed to the General Synod or any fund of the General Synod.

1.3 Scottish Episcopal Church Nominees

- 1.3.1 Scottish Episcopal Church Nominees is a nominee company established under the Companies Acts in whose name investments and property may be held. The Company may sue and be sued on behalf of and as representing the General Synod. Investments or property may also be held in some other nominee if the Investment Committee so decides, and it shall be competent, with the approval of the Investment Committee, for any agreement to be entered into with any such nominee in connection with the holding of such investments or property.

1.3.2 The General Synod shall indemnify, free and relieve (i) Scottish Episcopal Church Nominees and (ii) each and every director, secretary and other officer (if any) of Scottish Episcopal Church Nominees, and the General Synod shall accordingly hold harmless Scottish Episcopal Church Nominees and each and every director, secretary and other officer (if any) of Scottish Episcopal Church Nominees, from and against all claims, liabilities, costs and expenses incurred or which may be incurred by Scottish Episcopal Church Nominees or any director, secretary or other officer of Scottish Episcopal Church Nominees in connection with or arising directly or indirectly out of Scottish Episcopal Church Nominees holding or dealing with any investments or property, or any rights, assets, claims or benefits whatsoever and wheresoever situated and whether heritable or moveable, real or personal or corporeal or incorporeal, on behalf of the General Synod and/or incurring or assuming any expenditure, obligation or liability for or on behalf of the General Synod and/or having any transaction, intromission or other dealing, or entering into any contract or commitment or doing or not doing anything for and on behalf of the General Synod.

1.3.3 Scottish Episcopal Church Nominees shall be entitled to accept as the instructions to Scottish Episcopal Church Nominees of the General Synod any instructions given in writing to Scottish Episcopal Church Nominees by any Officer or Trustee for the time being in office of the General Synod or by anyone acting with the authority or ostensible authority of the General Synod (including any Convener of any General Synod Board or Committee) or of any such Trustee.

1.4 Charity Trustees

The members of the Standing Committee of the General Synod of the Scottish Episcopal Church have the general control and management of the administration of the General Synod of the Scottish Episcopal Church and are consequently the Charity Trustees of the General Synod for the purposes of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005.

1.5 Use of Funds

The funds raised under the discretion of the General Synod shall be applied towards promoting all or any of the following objects:-

1.5.1 the payment of clergy stipends;

In the event of any property, heritable or moveable, real or personal of whatever nature, being gifted or bequeathed to the General Synod, the same may be accepted and retained unrealised for such time or times as may be deemed advisable, and in the case of shares, whether such shares are or are not fully paid, and in the case of other property whether the same may be burdened or unburdened. In relation to heritable property belonging to General Synod, whether held in feu, under lease, freehold or leasehold, the General Synod may exercise all the powers of management or improvement which could be exercised by an absolute owner holding the property beneficially.
- 1.6.2 No member of the General Synod or of the Boards or Committees of the General Synod and no trustee shall be personally liable for any loss or depreciation in the value of any investments. All such members and trustees shall be indemnified by the General Synod against any such claims made against them as such members or trustees.

1.7 The Unit Trust Pool

For the purpose of management of the funds of the Church, the General Synod may from time to time establish a Unit Trust Pool or Pools to be administered by the Investment Committee in accordance with rules approved by the Administration Board. Each such Unit Trust Pool shall be held and administered as a common fund for the benefit of the contributing funds. The funds which may be invested in any such Unit Trust Pool shall be restricted to:-

- 1.7.1 the corporate funds of the General Synod;
- 1.7.2 the funds of the Scottish Episcopal Church Pension Fund;
- 1.7.3 the corporate funds of any Diocese of the Church;
- 1.7.4 the corporate funds of any congregation of the Church;

Subject to the rules approved as aforesaid, the funds comprised in a Unit Trust Pool shall be invested from time to time at the discretion of the Investment Committee in the purchase of any investment or property of any sort either heritable or moveable, real or personal and whether or not being investments or property authorised by the general law for the investment of trust funds, or upon loan upon the security of any property of any description or without security. Funds which the Investment Committee does not think fit immediately to invest may be deposited in a deposit fund or at any bank. The Investment Committee may from time to time at its discretion transpose or vary the investments comprised in a Unit Trust Pool for or into any other Unit Trust Pool authorised by the Administration Board. The management of investments or funds comprised in any Unit Trust Pool may be delegated by the Investment Committee to any company, firm or person as shall, in the opinion of the Investment Committee, be appropriately qualified by experience or otherwise for such purpose.

1.8 National Emergency

Unless the College of Bishops directs otherwise, in the event of a state of national emergency arising or being declared, the General Synod shall be deemed to have delegated to the Standing Committee during the period of such emergency, all its financial powers and administrative duties, including such as are at present exercised on its behalf by any Board or Committee.

1.9 Litigation

The Trustees may sue and be sued on behalf of and as representing the General Synod. The Secretary General may sue on behalf of the Standing Committee.

1.10 Rules of Order of Meetings

The conduct and procedures of Meetings of the General Synod shall be subject to such Rules of Order as the General Synod shall from time to time adopt.

2. THE BOARDS AND COMMITTEES OF THE GENERAL SYNOD

2.1 Membership of Boards and Committees

2.1.1 Eligibility, Terms of Office, Quorum, etc

- (a) Unless otherwise specified, any communicant member of the Church, whether or not a member of the General Synod, is eligible for appointment or election to any Board or Committee and may serve as its Convener. Conveners of Committees are ex-officiis members of the parent body. When Committees are appointed by Boards or Committees, the choice of members and Conveners will, unless otherwise specified, be made by the parent Board or Committee, and shall not be limited to members of the Board or Committee. Each Board or Committee of the General Synod may appoint from among its own membership a Vice Convener, without in any way altering that member's term of office or eligibility to serve. The number of members appointed to a Committee shall not exceed nine without the approval of the Standing Committee.
- (b) Members of Boards and Committees other than ex officio members and Conveners shall serve for a term of four years. Such members may be re-elected or re-appointed provided, however, that no member shall serve on any Board or Committee for a continuous period of more than eight years. No member or Convener with more than four years' service on ceasing to be a member or Convener shall be eligible for re-election until after an interval of at least one year. Casual vacancies shall also be filled for a period of four years.

Where in the opinion of a Committee the expiry of the term of office of a member of that Committee will have a seriously adverse effect on the completion of a particular item of work then being undertaken by that Committee, the parent Board of that Committee shall have the power, at the request of the Committee, to extend the term of office of that member for such period, beyond the date on which it would otherwise expire, as the Board shall specify as sufficient to allow the item of work in question to be completed. Should the Committee wish to retain the services of an ex officio member whose term of office is about to expire in order to allow the completion of a particular item of work then being undertaken by the Committee, that person's membership of the Committee shall cease on the date on which service in the office giving rise to membership of the Committee expires, but the Board may authorise the Committee to co-opt that person to serve as an additional member of the Committee, but without the right to vote, for such period as the Board shall specify as sufficient to allow the item of work in question to be completed.

- (c) Conveners of Boards and Committees shall only be eligible for election as such Convener for a continuous period not exceeding five years. The General Synod may, on the recommendation of the Standing Committee, extend the term of office of the Convener of a Board or Committee of the General Synod by a specified period.

- (d) No person in receipt of a salary or honorarium in respect of his or her duties under the General Synod or any Board or Committee of the General Synod or at any Institution under any such Board or Committee shall be a member of such Board or Committee unless authorised under the constitution of such body or by the Standing Committee.
- (e) The quorum for meetings of Boards and Committees shall be one third (rounded to the nearest whole number) of the members of the Board or Committee in question.
- (f) Dioceses shall be entitled to appoint an alternate in relation to the post of diocesan representative on any Board or Committee. In the event that such an alternate is appointed, the alternate shall be entitled to attend and participate fully in meetings of the Board or Committee in question instead of the appointed diocesan representative and shall accordingly be entitled to vote at any such meetings.
- (g) A person may not act as a member of a Board or Committee in more than one capacity. (For example, a member appointed to a Board or Committee as a General Synod representative may not also act as a diocesan representative on the same Board or Committee.)
- (h) In the case of election or appointment of a person as Convener or member of a Board or Committee, where the number of candidates nominated exceeds the number of vacancies, the person to be elected or appointed, as the case may be, shall be determined by a vote (or votes) by ballot in (each of) which the voters shall be entitled to vote for as many candidates as there are vacancies. No voter may record in the ballot more than one vote for any candidate. The candidate or candidates having the highest number of votes shall be declared duly elected. If there is equality of votes for the last vacancy, this shall be resolved by ballot or by a show of hands.

2.1.2 Appointment of Board Conveners

- (a) Conveners of Boards of the General Synod shall be appointed by the General Synod. Unless the Standing Committee proposes to recommend to the General Synod that the term of office of a Board Convener should be extended beyond the date on which he/she would otherwise demit office, the Secretary General shall, not later than three months before the date on which a Board Convener is due to demit office, so inform Diocesan Secretaries and invite nominations for the post to be submitted, in writing, to the Secretary General, accompanied by relevant biographical details of the nominee, by a date not earlier than three weeks after the date of such invitation.
- (b) Nominations may be submitted by Diocesan Synods or their respective Standing Committees (or equivalent) and by members of the General Synod save that in the case of a nomination from a member of General Synod, the nomination shall be signed by at least five members of General Synod.
- (c) The Standing Committee may make a nomination or recommend acceptance by General Synod of a nomination made by others.

- (d) The Board in question shall be entitled to make representations to the Standing Committee regarding the matter and any nomination or recommendation by the Standing Committee shall be made following prior consultation with the Board in question.
- (e) Details of the nominations and of the Standing Committee's recommendation (if any) shall be circulated, if not earlier, to General Synod members present at the commencement of the meeting of General Synod at which the appointment is to be made.
- (f) In the event that General Synod fails to make an appointment to a particular convenership, or in the event of a casual vacancy arising at any time in the post of any Board Convenership, the Standing Committee shall be entitled to fill the vacancy save that the person appointed shall retire at the next meeting of the General Synod and the procedure set out above shall be repeated. A person appointed as Convener by the Standing Committee shall be eligible to be re-appointed at that next meeting of the General Synod but such appointment shall be for a period not exceeding four years.
- (g) The foregoing paragraphs (a), (b), (c), (e) and (f) shall apply to the appointment of the Convener of the Standing Committee as if references to the Convener of a Board were references to the Convener of the Standing Committee.
- (h) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Convener of Board of the Scottish Episcopal Institute shall be a Bishop, nominated by Standing Committee to General Synod, and the provisions of paragraphs (b), (c) and (d) above shall not apply to the convenership of that Board.

2.1.3 Appointment of Committee Conveners

- (a) Conveners of Committees shall be appointed by the parent body (whether a Board or Committee) of the Committee in question.
- (b) Not later than six months before a Committee Convener is due to demit office or, in the event of a casual vacancy arising, as soon as reasonably practical after the Secretary General becomes aware of such a vacancy, the Secretary General shall so notify the members of the Committee in question and its parent body and shall invite nominations for the post to be submitted to him in writing by a date not earlier than three weeks after the date of such invitation to allow such nominations to be notified by him to the parent body, in advance of the meeting at which the appointment is to be considered.
- (c) Nominations may be submitted by individual members of the Committee in question or of the parent body or by the Committee in question as a corporate nomination. Wherever possible, nominations shall be accompanied by relevant biographical details of the nominee.

- (d) In the event of a casual vacancy arising at any time in the post of any Committee Convenership, the parent body shall, if it considers it desirable, be entitled to appoint a temporary Convener pending the consideration of nominations which shall be invited as provided in paragraph (b) above.

2.1.4 Appointment of Board Members (other than Conveners)

(a) Diocesan Representatives

Not later than three months before a diocesan representative is due to demit office and if possible in good time before the annual meeting of the relevant Diocesan Synod or, in the event of a casual vacancy arising, as soon as reasonably practicable after the Secretary General becomes aware of such a vacancy, the Secretary General shall so notify the relevant Diocesan Secretary inviting the relevant Diocese to appoint a new representative having appropriate skills, experience and interests or, where appropriate, to re-appoint its existing representative.

(b) General Synod Representatives

- (i) Not later than the date on which the agenda for the annual meeting of the General Synod is despatched, the Secretary General shall notify the members of the General Synod of any actual or impending vacancies of which he is aware in relation to the posts of General Synod representatives on any particular Board and shall invite nominations for such posts to be submitted to him, in writing, accompanied by relevant biographical details of the nominee by a date not earlier than two weeks after the date of such invitation.
- (ii) Details of the nominations shall be circulated, if not earlier, to General Synod members present at the commencement of the meeting of General Synod at which the appointments are to be made.
- (iii) In the event that General Synod fails to make an appointment to a particular post, or in the event of a casual vacancy arising at any time in the post of General Synod representative on any particular Board, the Standing Committee shall be entitled to fill the vacancy save that the person so appointed shall retire at the next meeting of the General Synod. Such a person shall be eligible to be re-appointed at that next meeting of the General Synod but such appointment shall be for a period not exceeding three years.

(c) Ex-Officiis and other Members

- (i) In the event that a person is an ex-officio member of a Board, the Secretary General shall inform both that person and the Board in question of their membership as soon as reasonably practicable after the person in question has become an ex-officio member.
- (ii) In the event that another Board or body (such as the College of Bishops) is entitled to appoint members to a particular Board, the Secretary General shall inform the Board or body having the power of appointment as soon as practicable after the Secretary General becomes aware of a vacancy in the post in question and shall inform both the person appointed and the Board to which they are appointed as soon as practicable after the Secretary General becomes aware that an appointment has been made.

2.1.5 Appointment of Committee Members (other than Conveners)

(a) Diocesan Representatives, Ex-Officiis Members and Members Appointed by Bodies other than the Parent Body

The procedure for the appointment of diocesan representatives, ex-officiis members and members appointed by bodies other than the parent body of the Committee in question shall be the same, mutatis mutandis, as that set out in paragraphs (a) and (c) of Section 2.1.4 in relation to the appointments of Board members.

(b) Other Members

- (i) All other members of a Committee shall be appointed by the Committee's parent body.
- (ii) Not later than three months before a Committee Member is due to demit office or, in the event of a casual vacancy arising, as soon as reasonably practicable after the Secretary General becomes aware of such a vacancy, the Secretary General shall so notify the members of the Committee in question and its parent body and shall invite nominations for the post to be submitted to him in writing by a date not earlier than three weeks after the date of such invitation to allow such nominations to be notified by him to the parent body in advance of the meeting at which the appointment is to be considered.
- (iii) Nominations may be submitted by individual members of the Committee in question or of the parent body or by the Committee in question as a corporate nomination. Wherever possible, nominations shall be accompanied by relevant biographical details of the nominee.
- (iv) In the event of there being, in the opinion of a Committee's parent body, exceptional circumstances, the parent body shall be entitled to fill a casual vacancy without there having been compliance with the foregoing procedure.

2.1.6 Code of Conduct for Conveners and Members of Boards and Committees

The Standing Committee shall have power to adopt from time to time a Code of Conduct setting out the principles of conduct and behaviour expected to be observed by conveners and members of Boards and Committees of the General Synod and setting out the consequences of any breach of such Code or how any complaints made under an such Code are to be handled. Any such Code shall be binding on such conveners and members, including any procedures contained in it regarding how breaches of such a Code or complaints under it shall be dealt with.

2.2 Standing Committee and Pendant Committees

2.2.1 The Standing Committee of the General Synod shall consist of a Lay Convener appointed by the General Synod, the Primus, a Bishop other than the Primus (appointed by the College of Bishops) and the Conveners of the Administration Board, the Mission Board and the Board of the Scottish Episcopal Institute. In addition, notwithstanding the provisions of Section 2.1.5(b), the House of Clergy of the General Synod shall elect two members and the House of Laity of the General Synod shall elect one member. No such elected persons shall be concurrent members of a General Synod Board, any of their pendant committees or any other provincial body as determined from time to time by the Standing Committee. Unless the General Synod otherwise resolves, the period of office shall be four years (with the possibility of re-election for one additional such term). The Standing Committee itself may make nominations to the Synod in relation to the two clerical posts and the one lay post.

2.2.2 Acting under the authority of the General Synod of the Scottish Episcopal Church, and subject to the terms of the Digest of Resolutions, the Standing Committee has the general control and management of the administration of the General Synod of the Scottish Episcopal Church and as such any authority in the administration of the affairs of the General Synod operated by the other boards and committees of the General Synod shall be by authority delegated by the Standing Committee and it shall be empowered to exercise generally all financial powers vested in the General Synod and in particular, without prejudice to the foregoing generality, it is empowered:-

- (a) to expend the income of the Scottish Episcopal Church general funds and in an emergency to draw, as the Standing Committee considers necessary, from the capital of those funds;
- (b) to authorise any Board or Committee to expend sums, as the Standing Committee considers necessary, from the capital funds of that Board or Committee.

2.2.3 The Standing Committee shall be empowered to appoint or re-appoint the following officials of the General Synod:-

In the event that the General Synod does not agree the amount of provincial quota to be requested from Dioceses for a particular year, the Standing Committee shall have power to set the quota for such year at a figure no greater than that of quota requested for the year immediately preceding that particular year.

2.2.7 The Standing Committee shall appoint the following pendant Committees:-

- (a) the Organisation Review Committee, consisting of a Convener and at least two other members;
- (b) the Committee for the Protection of Children and Vulnerable Adults (known as the Safeguarding Committee), consisting of a Convener, up to six other members drawn from within the Church and up to two additional members drawn from outwith the Church and who have professional safeguarding management experience at a senior level.

2.2.8 The Organisation Review Committee shall review the operation of the General Synod, its Boards and Committees as requested by the Standing Committee from time to time.

2.2.9 The Committee for the Protection of Children and Vulnerable Adults shall monitor and, where necessary, develop the Child Protection Policy of the Church from time to time and oversee the provision of advice in connection with the protection of children and young people and vulnerable adults within the Church.

Each monthly payment of housing allowance shall be of such amount as may be determined by the Administration Board and in determining such amount the Administration Board shall have regard to the Retirement Housing Committee's practice where a cleric retires on grounds of ill-health, and shall have regard to its advice.

6.3.10 The resettlement allowance shall be a single payment of an amount equal to three-tenths of the standard stipend for the year in which application for compensation was made.

- 6.3.14 An application for compensation shall be made to the Administration Board in such manner as the Administration Board may determine; and where a cleric is personally incapacitated from making such an application the Administration Board may authorise some other person to make it on the cleric's behalf.

The balance shall be borne by the General Synod from the funds under the oversight of the Administration Board.
- 6.3.16 In circumstances where the stipend receivable by a stipendiary cleric immediately prior to the events referred to in paragraph 6.3.2 is less than standard stipend, the foregoing provisions of paragraph 6.3 shall take effect so that the compensation payable under the provisions of paragraph 6.3 shall be reduced proportionately to reflect the difference between the standard stipend and the stipend actually receivable by the cleric in question. In circumstances where no housing or housing allowance is provided to a stipendiary cleric immediately prior to the events referred to paragraph 6.3.2, the foregoing provisions of paragraph 6.3 shall take effect so that no housing allowance or resettlement allowance shall be payable under paragraphs 6.3.4(b), 6.3.9 or 6.3.10.

Grants towards the travelling expenses of clerics ministering to two or more churches may be given from Diocesan Funds.

6.7 Non-stipendiary Clergy

Every Diocese or congregation shall pay to or on behalf of each of its non-stipendiary clergy expenses of the kind referred to in paragraphs 6.5.3 and 6.5.4.

6.7.2 Housing

In relation to any appointment of a non-stipendiary cleric after 31 December 2000, there should be no provision of parsonage accommodation by a Diocese or congregation to the cleric in question unless the provision of the same is necessary for the better performance by the cleric of his or her duties.

6.7.3 Payment

In relation to any appointment of a non-stipendiary cleric after 31 December 2000, no payment other than payment of expenses should be made to the cleric in question without prior consultation with the Diocesan Treasurer.

6.8 Clergy Personnel Provision

The Administration Board shall, on the recommendation of the Personnel Committee, and having regard to employment legislation and good practice, have power to adopt policies, procedures, rules, and guidance in relation to personnel matters in respect of clergy, not otherwise covered by the Code of Canons, provided that they shall be ratified by the General Synod before implementation.

All expenses to be paid by a Diocese must, if so required by the Diocese, be adequately vouched for. Any Deans Allowance paid by the General Synod to Dioceses shall be expended by the Dioceses in reimbursing expenses incurred by their respective deans in the performance of their decanal duties.

6.11 Pensions

In the event that any person who would otherwise be entitled to become a member of the Scottish Episcopal Church Pension Fund decides not to become such a member, the Diocese or congregation as the case may be who appoints such a person shall nevertheless pay to the Pension Fund such sums, as determined by the provincial Standing Committee, from time to time as represent those elements of the normal contribution rate payable in respect of members of the Pension Fund which relate to life insurance cover, administration and any deficit reduction as part of a pensions recovery plan in the event of the Pension Fund being in a deficit situation as regards past service.

6.12 Maternity, Paternity, Adoption Leave etc

Stipendiary office holders shall be entitled to maternity, paternity, parental and adoption leave for the same periods and subject to the same conditions as apply in the case of an employee under the Employment Rights Act 1996 or any regulations made under that Act. 7. DIOCESAN SYNODS AND CONGREGATIONS

7.1 Powers of Diocesan Synods

Whereas each Diocese has a Diocesan Synod, established and operating in terms of Canon 50:-

7.1.1 Each Diocesan Synod shall have control of all funds and properties committed to it, and shall make provision for the collection, custody and holding of such funds and properties, and for the distribution thereof, subject to the rights of the Bishop of the Diocese and the terms of any trust or of any conditions affecting any of such funds or properties.

7.1.2 A Diocesan Synod may exercise any or all of the following powers:-

- (a) fix its own quorum and make regulations as to the transaction of its business (including without prejudice to the foregoing generality, the establishment of Boards and Committees of the Diocesan Synod);
- (b) determine the time and place of its meetings, but shall meet at least annually and at such times as it is required to do so by the General Synod;
- (c) appoint officials;
- (d) require congregations to contribute annually to the funds of the Diocese.

7.1.3 The said funds and properties shall (except in cases of Trusts which provide otherwise) be vested in the name of the Bishop and/or any two or more of the following - the Dean, the Synod Clerk, the Chancellor and the Registrar, all of the Diocese, ex-officiis, as Trustees for the Diocesan Synod, as may be decided by the Diocesan Synod. The Trustees may direct that investments and property be held in nominee names on their behalf and may enter into any agreement with such nominee in connection with the holding of such investments or property.

7.1.4 The said Trustees shall have, in addition and without prejudice to the powers which gratuitous Trustees have by Statute or Common Law of Scotland, power subject to the approval of the Standing Committee (or other appropriate Committee) of the Diocese:-

- (a) to uplift and receive legacies, successions and all estate, heritable and moveable, to which the Diocesan Synod may be entitled, and to grant all necessary deeds and receipts and discharges. The signature of the Diocesan Secretary or Treasurer or any of the Trustees of the Diocesan Synod shall be a valid discharge unless otherwise provided in terms of the bequest.
- (b) to grant obligations binding the funds of the Diocesan Synod so far as the said funds are held for the general purposes of the Diocese;
- (c) to make any kind of investment (including an investment in heritable property). In the event of any property, heritable or moveable, real or personal, of whatever nature being gifted or bequeathed to the Diocesan Synod, the same may be accepted or retained unrealised for such time or times as may be deemed advisable, and in the case of shares, whether such shares are or are not fully paid and in the case of other property whether the same may be burdened or unburdened. In relation to heritable property belonging to the Diocesan Synod, the Diocesan Synod may exercise all the powers of management or improvement which could be exercised by an absolute owner holding the property beneficially.

- 7.1.5 In any case where the title to funds and properties stands in the names of Trustees in trust for behoof of a Diocese, the Standing Committee (or other appropriate Committee) of the Diocesan Synod of the said Diocese shall have authority to consent to the sale thereof and to give such other consents as may appear to be warranted.
- 7.1.6 The Diocesan Standing Committee shall consist of the Bishop of the Diocese and such other members of the Diocese as the Diocesan Synod may elect. All members of the Diocesan Standing Committee shall ex-officiis be members of the Diocesan Synod.
- 7.1.7 No Member of the Diocesan Synod or of its Boards or Committees and no Trustee shall be personally liable for any loss or depreciation in value of any investments. All such Members and Trustees shall be indemnified by the Diocesan Synod against any such claims made against them as such Members or Trustees.
- 7.1.8 The Trustees acting under sub-clause paragraph 7.1.3 whether acting as Trustees ex officiiis for a congregation in the Diocese or any congregational Trust, shall be indemnified by the Diocesan Synod against all claims in respect of loss or depreciation in value of investments or property made against them as such Trustees in so far as not indemnified by the congregation concerned.
- 7.1.9 The Diocesan Synod shall cooperate with the General Synod as the General Synod shall determine and shall exercise powers delegated to it by the General Synod.
- 7.1.10 Expenses incurred by the Primus in administering a Diocese in which the See is vacant shall be paid to the Primus by that Diocese.

7.2 Duties of Diocesan Synods and Congregations

The general duty of enquiry of all church properties and schedules within each Diocese rests upon the Diocesan Synod, which shall determine how most appropriately to perform these duties.

- 7.2.1 This shall include inquiry as to:-
- (a) congregational funds and the proper custody of certificates or other documents of title;
 - (b) condition and repair of buildings including the date of the last comprehensive survey of all buildings of the church;

- (c) adequate insurance with insurance companies of good standing, and the proper custody of policies of insurance;
- (d) arrangements for risk assessment and management;
- (e) the existence of a formal constitution sanctioned by the Bishop.

7.2.2 Each Vestry, which failing the diocese on behalf of the Vestry, shall appoint an architect, chartered surveyor or other suitably qualified person to supervise the buildings under the Vestry's charge and notify the Diocese of any change in such appointment from time to time and the Vestry shall obtain a written report, including an energy performance certificate, in respect of these buildings, at least every five years. The report shall also confirm that the building's energy performance certificate is up-to date.

7.2.3 The accounts of all congregations appropriately audited or examined as required from time to time by charity regulation shall be submitted annually to the Diocese for examination with a report on such examination being submitted for consideration to an appropriate Diocesan Committee. The annual accounts of congregations shall close on a date not earlier than 30th June and not later than 30th September in each year. The accounts shall be submitted to the congregation for approval within three months of the financial year end (or such other period as may be prescribed in the charge's constitution) and to the Diocesan Treasurer by the end of November.

7.2.4 Similarly Diocesan Accounts shall be submitted to the Treasurer of the General Synod annually.

7.2.5 Without prejudice to the provisions of paragraph 7.1.8 in circumstances where the trustees of the Diocese, in connection with a request made by a congregation or its vestry, accept an offer of grant from a body which is external to the Church relating to the maintenance, repair, alteration, restoration or demolition of a church property of which the vestry has the care under Canon 60, the said trustees shall have no personal responsibility (as regards the vestry or congregation) in relation to the performance of any conditions or other terms applicable to any such offer of grant and shall be entitled to be indemnified out of the funds of the congregation against any liability undertaken or incurred by them.

7.3 Raising to Incumbency Status

Under Canon 36, the Standing Committee is required to certify that the General Synod's requirements with reference to the conditions under which congregations may be raised to Incumbencies have been satisfied. It is recommended:-

7.3.1 that consideration be given to the number of members and permanency of the congregation, and to the proximity of its church to neighbouring charges;

7.3.2 that the form of conveyance sanctioned by the General Synod be recommended for adoption, and that before granting a Certificate, the Standing Committee be furnished with a Report from the Law Agent of the General Synod on the question of title;

7.3.3 that the charge be (a) providing a local stipend or stipend contribution for the maintenance of the cleric of not less than one-half of the current standard stipend, (b) providing a parsonage free of debt, and (c) reasonably contributing to Provincial Funds, all to the satisfaction of the Diocesan Administration Board (or equivalent);

7.3.4 that charges making application for the Certificate under Canon 36 bear the costs of such an application.

7.4 Calculation of Local Stipend

7.4.1 Where it is necessary to ascertain the amount of the local stipend in order to compute a grant for stipend support for a charge the Vestry shall, not later than the date specified by its Diocese, inform the Diocesan Treasurer of the local contributions towards stipend which it is proposed to pay in the ensuing year.

7.4.2 There shall be reckoned as part of the local contributions towards stipend:-

- (a) all monies received by the cleric in virtue of being Rector or Priest of the charge or charges to which he or she has been instituted or licensed. This includes Easter offerings (if paid to the cleric) and any grant received towards the stipend;
- (b) pay received by the cleric as Chaplain to any branch of HM Forces, excepting such allowances for expenses as may be determined in accordance with rules made by the Diocesan Administration Board (or equivalent);
- (c) pay received by the cleric as Chaplain to a hospital, prison or other institution excepting such allowances for expenses as may be determined in accordance with rules made by the Diocesan Administration Board (or equivalent);
- (d) pay received by the cleric for any secular work outside his or her ecclesiastical duties, excepting such allowances as agreed by the Diocesan Administration Board (or equivalent).

7.4.3 The following payments shall not be reckoned as part of the local contribution towards stipend:-

- (a) all expenses enumerated in paragraph 6.5;
- (b) the employer's share of National Insurance contributions.

7.4.4 Clerics already instituted or licensed (whether or not to an assisted charge) seeking to undertake secular work must have the permission, subject to annual review, of their Diocesan Bishop and of their Vestry. Each individual case shall be reported to the Diocesan Administration Board (or equivalent) for its separate ratification. The approval of the Bishop and the Vestry shall be obtained each year.

7.4.5 In cases where a charge applies for stipend support, if the cleric instituted or licensed in respect of that charge

- (a) in the year prior to the year for which stipend support is sought has received or is likely to receive income in respect of work carried out or to be carried out (other than his or her ecclesiastical duties in respect of the charge in question); or
- (b) in the year for which stipend support sought is likely to receive income in respect of work carried out or to be carried out (other than his or her ecclesiastical duties in respect of the charge in question)

then in submitting its application for stipend support the charge shall, unless the Diocesan Administration Board (or equivalent) otherwise agrees, also provide documentary evidence, to the satisfaction of the Diocesan Administration Board (or equivalent) which shall, if required, include written evidence from the person for whom the cleric carries out work other than his or her ecclesiastical duties in respect of the charge in question), detailing:-

- (i) the nature of the work undertaken in the year in which the application is made and likely to be undertaken in the year for which stipend support is sought;
- (ii) the amount of remuneration (in excess of any minimum amount determined by the Diocesan Administration Board (or equivalent)) paid or payable to the cleric in respect of such work in the year in which the application is made and in the year for which stipend support is sought;
- (iii) the fact that no remuneration has been or is likely to be received by the cleric in respect of such work in either of such years if that be the case;
- (iv) the amount (if any) of the Easter Offering paid to the cleric.

For the avoidance of doubt, failure to provide such evidence, if requested, shall be considered to be a neglect to provide information in terms of paragraph 7.6.

7.5 Duty of Congregation to Raise Stipend

7.5.1 It is the duty of every congregation first to provide such standard stipend and allowances for its cleric as the General Synod shall from time to time determine or authorise the Provincial Administration Board to determine; and secondly, to contribute to the funds of the Diocese and of the General Synod.

7.5.2 It shall be the duty of the Vestry in each congregation to arrange for the collection of contributions to Diocesan and Provincial Quotas. Where a congregation receives a stipend support grant it shall make efforts to increase its contribution towards stipend. Failure to do so shall be taken into account by Diocesan Treasurers in reckoning its assessments for Diocesan and Provincial Quotas.

7.6 Failure of Congregation to Meet Stipend, etc

Without prejudice to the power of the Bishop and Diocesan Synod to proceed in terms of Canon 36, Section 12, or the College of Bishops in terms of Canon 13, Section 9, if at any time a Diocese through its Standing Committee (or equivalent) considers that a congregation receiving stipend support from its Diocese is failing to cooperate, neglects to provide information required by a Diocesan Board or Committee, or is not raising a reasonable sum for its local contribution towards stipend or for contributions to the Diocesan Funds, or because it has become reduced in numbers, the relevant Diocesan Board or Committee may, after consultation with the Bishop, recommend to the Diocesan Synod that the congregation be placed "Under Review". If this recommendation is approved by the Diocesan Synod, that Synod shall, at its meeting in the following year, deal with the congregation as it sees fit, and may exclude its name from future stipend support.

7.7 Model Constitution

The General Synod recommends for adoption by incumbency charges only the Model Form of Constitution for Incumbencies, which is available from the General Synod Office. The responsibility for ensuring such adoption shall be that of the Vestry.

7.8 Expenses of Episcopal Elections

The expenses of the members of the Electoral Synod attending any meeting summoned in terms of Canon 4 shall be paid out of the funds of the General Synod.
